COUNTY BOARD.

Of Commissioners Held Regular Monthly Meeting Monday.

MUCH BUSINESS TRANSACTED

At Sessions Held in the Morning and Afternoon—Application of the Yacht Company for a Ferry Franchise Referred to a Committee—Various Committees Make Reports—Land to be Condemned for a County Road in Liberty District.

Yesterday afternoon the regular monthly meeting of the county board of commissioners was held at the court house. President Dobbins occupied the chair and there was a full attendance of members.

A petition signed by Judge Paull and members of the Ohio county bar, asking the purchase of three new book cases for use in the chambers of the criminal court and Part I and Part II of the circuit court, was received. After a short discussion, the petition was laid over for action at a future meeting.

The committee on poor house and farm reported poor house bills amounting to $629 45; court house and jail, $553 60; finance, $296 22.

The finance committee credited Sheriff Franzheim with orders amounting to $1,000. The committee also reported having decided to borrow $5,000 to pay for the repairs made necessary to the county roads by the recent floods. At first it was proposed to scale down appropriations for repairs and extensions of roads, but this plan was abandoned in favor of a loan.

Petitions inspired by the West Virginia Humane Society, asking for the appointment of a matron at the county jail, were read by Clerk Moffat. They were referred to the committee on court house and jail.

Amounts due several districts on local road tax were reported as follows: Triadelphia, $351 84; Liberty, $570 46; Ritchie, $124 47.

An ordinance from the Central District Printing and Telegraph Company (Bell) for right of way on roads of this county, was presented and read. This is a renewal of an ordinance granted the local company ten years ago. After Mr. Robinson had moved an amendment by which the county secures the use of six phones at $15 per year, instead of four, the ordinance went to its third reading and was passed.

A communication from the officers of the Naphtha Yacht Ferry Company, asking the grant of a franchise to operate a ferry between Twelfth street, city side, and Fink street, Island, was read. Commissioner Bowman objected to the passage of the ordinance and presented his reasons. At the request of the company the board authorized President Dobbins to appoint a committee which shall look into the matter and report at the next meeting. At the afternoon session President Dobbins announced the committee as follows: Messrs. Fritz, Robinson, Menckemiller, McCurdy and President Dobbins.

In the matter of a new road through the lands of Theodore and Fredericka Wolf and the Bell heirs, in Liberty district, there was no objection to the terms proposed by the board from the latter. The Wolf, however, declined to accept, $150, which was offered by the board. The prosecuting attorney was authorized to take the necessary steps to secure the condemnation of the land.

After transacting business of minor importance, the board adjourned at 3 o'clock.

IN THE COURTS.

Another Receiver for the Brilliant Works Wanted—Other Business.

Yesterday before Judge Campbell, of the circuit court, Joseph Speldel and others applied for the appointment of a receiver for the real estate of the Brilliant Tube and Pipe works, of Brilliant, Jefferson county, Ohio. The judge will consider the application on another day, not yet set. Recently Howard Hazlett was appointed receiver for the personal effects of the company in the circuit court of this county, and still another general receiver was applied for and the request granted by Judge Douthitt, of the Ohio courts, sitting at New Philadelphia. The litigation, the particulars of which are known to the public, arises out of the assignment of the Brilliant by President Jackson, and which the Wheeling stockholders claim was not necessary or authorized by the board of directors.

Before Judge Paull, of the circuit court yesterday, the petition of John W. and Margaret J. Elliott, to adopt Joseph Michael, was presented, and will be heard on September 19. C. A. Robinson was appointed next friend of the infant to represent his interests.

An order from Judge Paull was entered in the circuit clerk's office yesterday setting the business of the term of the circuit courts, as follows:

Criminal business in Part II.
Civil cases in Parts I and II as indicated by the dockets already prepared.
Dockets will be called as follows: Part I, Wednesday, September 9, 9:30 a. m.; Part II, Wednesday, September 9, 2 p. m.

Yesterday in the criminal court the bond of Charles Russell was reduced from $500 to $100 and bail furnished, whereupon the prisoner was released from custody until the ensuing term. Russell is accused of assault on John Holden. Chauncey White renewed his bond and will appear at the next term. Court will be open for a few days for the renewal of bonds, but on account of the illness of Judge Hugas, and the small amount of business to be done at the September term, no cases will be tried until the November term, unless a special term is called in the meanwhile.
